Marion Butler seems to have worked the rabbit foot on the Republican Senators concerning his $150,000 Indian claim. Lose Butler- He lobbies when you are asleep.

The Raleigh Caucasian throws out the hint that if we want immigration we should place the Republicans in charge of the State. Now, here, that would be cause for emigration.

A member of the Louisiana Legislature has introduced a bill to regulate courting. We do not hesitate to predict that such a bill as that will be evaded with as much facility as a Republican bill to regulate rate making.

Richard Zombery, a well known Hungarian, has 151 duels on his hands so a Vienna cablegram says. He surely has troubles but think of Mormon Senator Reed Smoot with 100,000 women lined up against him to put him out of the Senate.

As President Roosevelt seems to have his hand in on the investigation stunt, the Democrats in Congress might renew their efforts to get the Departments at aWshington investigated. Heretofore the Republicans prevented it because they couldn't afford it.

At the recent civil service examination for mail clerks in Denver, the majority of the competitors who won and qualified were young women. They will have a chance to prove that they can handle the mails as well as they can the males.

A Republican paper, accounting for the Bryan revival and noting the fact that former anti-Bryan men and newspapers are pronouncing for him, says it is because Col. Bryan has become more conservative. More likely the other way. "Apt as not the revelations and scandals of Republican times have opened their eyes to the things that made Bryan radical.

Says the Columbia State: "On Friday, G. W. Pettigrew, watchman at the State dispensary, testified that Briggs Wilson of the Richland Distilling company had presented H. H. Evans, chairman of the dispensary board, with a cow for which Wilson had paid Pettigrew $100. The inference is that this was a 'commisison' in kine." There was also something "low" about that cow transaction.

Governor Hock, of Kansas, couldn't induce that judge to accept the appointment to fill out the unexpired six months term of Senator Burton, who had to resign or be kicked out. The judge declined because, he said, he had neither inclination nor the strength to engage in a political factional fight which his acceptance would invite. That is just about what a man has to do when he runs for most any kind of an office, but some people are willing to be cussed and discussed for the sake of an office.

THE BUILDING LAW

Interesting Controversy Over Required Thickness of Walls in Wessell Stores

TWO WORKMEN ARRESTED

Fire Insurance Commissioner Authorized Employment of Counsel in Support of City Building Inspector—Men Dismissed.

An interesting controversy has sprung up over a construction of the State Fire Waste Law which has been adopted as the building law of the city, in connection with the erection of the Wessell block of stores on Market street, near Second. Some days ago it came to the notice of Building Inspector Bonitz that an eight-inch wall was being put in where he construed the law required a twelve-inch thickness. He immediately applied to the Mayor, who had an officer sent down to the work to notify the men engaged in putting up the alleged defective wall that they must stop. For a few days it rained and the workmen were not engaged on the construction and in the meantime Mr. Britt, who has charge of the work for Mrs. Wessell, applied to his attorneys to know if the wall were not permissible where it was a veneering of another wall. He was advised that the wall as being constructed was within the requirements and that he could proceed to so construct it.

Mr. Britt notified the chief of police of his intention to continue the work and the chief informed him that if the work was commenced, the men engaged in the same would be arrested. In the meantime, Building Inspector Bonitz telegraphed Fire Insurance Commissioner Young at Raleigh for instructions in case the owner persisted in the work of building the wall and the Fire Insurance Commissioner answered at once by wire, instructing Mr. Bonitz to employ counsel and see that any infraction of the laws was punished. When the workmen commenced on the job yesterday morning, Police Officer M. E. Guy arrested two of them, Charles Rountree and James Carroll, both of whom were arraigned before Mayor Pro Tem. O'Brien, at the noon session of the municipal court. Appearing for them was Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy, counsel for Mr. Britt, and for the State Herbert Mcclammy, Esq., appeared. City Attorney Marsden Bellamy, Jr., was also present as counsel for the municipality. The case was strenuously fought, but in the manner of the service of the notice upon them some defect was found and the men were dismissed. It seems that the law requires that the men must first be fixed with a knowledge of their violation and then if they persist, they are liable to indictment under the Fire Waste Law, a copy of which must be served on them. It was also argued that the men arrested were neither foremen, contractors or owners and that the indictment against the men would not avail. The facts have been sent up to the Fire Insurance Commissioner to be passed upon and if his instructions continue, it is likely that warrants will be issued for the owner or contractors on the building.

The case has created a little stir in municipal circles and the workmen on the building have been watched with some interest between showers. Further developments are expectd today in case it is undertaken to complete the wall anything less than the twelve inches required under the law.

THE WADESBORO LYNCHERS.

Every Lawyer in Monroe Engaged in the Case.

Monroe, N. C., June 12.—The Journal of to-day says: "Governor Glenn has ordered the county commissioners of this county to provide for a special term of the Superior Court to begin on the 16th of July. The object is to give time to try the men of Anson who are charged with lynching. Judge Shaw will preside.

"Every member of the Monroe bar has been engaged in the case, which promises to be a famous one. Mr. R. B. Redwine has been engaged by Governor Glenn to assist Solicitor Robinson in representing the State. All the other members have been employed by the defendants."

MAYOR PRO TEM HAS VIEWS

Thinks Police Court Should Not Be Collection Agency for Scavengers —Cases Disposed of Yesterday.

A goodly number of offenders greeted Mayor Pro Tem. O'Brien in the municipal court yesterday, Mayor Waddell being still too unwell to be out. During the progress of the trial of a case in which Wm. Howe and Annie Williams, colored, were charged with keeping an unsanitary place on their premises, the Mayor Pro Tem. took occasion to express himself pretty forcibly upon the question of the operation of the scavenger system in too close alliance with the health department. Mr. O'Brien said that he disliked to criticise, but it seemed to him that the drift was to make a collection bureau for the scavengers out of the police court. The defendants in the case were dismissed.

Other cases in connection with the building ordinance and the market house affray are spoken of elsewhere in to-day's paper. John Turner, an old and very respectful negro arrested, by Officer F. A. Nichols for being drunk and down, begegd piteously and was dismissed, it having been his first offence in any court. Adell Brothers, drunk and down, arrested by Officer Leon George, was let off with the costs. Oscar Johnson, the small colored boy from the Independent Ice Company, charged with the larceny of a ring, was let off on account of his youth provided his mother gave him a sound thrashing. She was in court and promised to do up a good job. Lillie Blount, a colored vagrant arrested by Officer Newton, was given 30 days on the farm. Annie Williams, colored, similarly charged, was let off with the costs. Several other cases of minor importance were disposed of by the defendants' paying the costs.

BICYCLE RACES ON THE FOURTH.

Annual Meet Under Auspices of Y. M. C. A. Being Arranged.

The second annual bicycle meet under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. on the fourth of July will take place this year as usual and already arrangements are under way for the event. The race last year was over the shell road for a distance of five miles to Seventeenth and Market streets and the race was every bit a success proving of great interest to the athletes of th city in general. The riders at that time were all fast and the event was satisfactory in every respect. This season a number of young riders have signified their purpose to enter the contest and the list of entries promises to be large. To the end that all plans may be perfected, a meeting of all those interested in the meet are requested to assemble at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday night when the course will be decided upon and rules governing the race adopted. The usual number of handsome prizes will be awarded. There is a probability that the race may be pulled off on the beach at Wrightsville, on low tide, but all these matters will be decided upon at the meeting as stated. Should it be decided to have the meet at the beach the course would be only about three miles, starting at some convenient point and making a turn to the point of beginning. Such an arrangement would be a strong card for the beach on the "Fourth" and every effort will be made to have it there, though some prefer that it should be over the same course as last year.

Rev. M. J. Duryea Resigned.

Rev. M. J. Duryea, who has been the faithful pastor of Market Street M. E. church during the past several months, at a meeting of the Board of Stewards of the congregation Monday night tendered his resignation effective on June 20th. Mr. Duryea leaves the pastorate to engage in evangelistic work again. In his formal resignation, Mr. Duryea states that he resigns for the reason that the salary paid is not sufficient to meet his expenses, and that the congregation does not feel able to take the responsibility of increasing the same. The resignation was accepted with regret by the Board of Stewards and a resolution was passed, praying God's blessings on the retiring pastor in his future work wherever duty may call.

Narrowly Escaped Drowning.

Mr. J. A. Brothers, the well known pharmacist at the Southside Drug Company, Front and Castle streets, had a narrow escape from drowning at Carolina Beach Sunday. While in surf bathing he got beyond his depth in some way and was being swept out to sea in a frightful manner by the undertow when some other bathers went to his rescue and succeeded in bringing him ashore. It was a close call but Mr. Brothers retained his presence of mind and that was in a large measure responsible for his rescue.

SOUTHERN SCHEDULE

It is a Lively Muss They've Kicked Up in Raleigh Over an Early Train

DEVELOPMENTS YESTERDAY

Railroad Petitions Corporation Commission to Remove Entire Question to Federal Court—Brief Review of the Case.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 12.—The Southern Railway this morning filed with the Corporation Commission their answer to the complaints filed with the Commission against the change of the schedule of their Goldsboro-Greensboro train No. 111 and also filed a petition that the whole proceedings be removed to the United States Court on the ground that interstate mail and passenger and freight traffic are involved and the Southern is a Virginia corporation. Contending counsel reached an agreement that they will hold a conference with the Commission Friday morning for naming a date for the hearing as to the petitions and the motion for the removal to the Federal Court. The answer to the petitions is much along the same lines as the complaint by the Southern on which Judge Purnell last evening issued the restraining order against the Commission.

It sets out in detail the reasons for the change as materially benefitting the traveling public with regard to their Western North Carolina travel. Further that "The real purpose of the order as appears by many of the petitions is to delay train No. 111 for the purpose of receiving the belated mail offered by one corporation, the morning newspaper, and that the commission has no right to delay the transportation of mail, passengers and freight for the sole purpose of conferring a favor upon a single user of the United States mails."

(By Associated Press.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 12.—The Southern Railway has filed a petition with the North Carolina Corporation Commission to remove all hearings of the case in which it is sought to keep it from changing its midnight schedule here and breaking connection with the Seaboard Air Line to the Federal Court, claiming Interstate commerce is involved and that the Corporation Commission has no jurisdiction. On June 2nd, petitions began to pile in on the Commission against the change of schedule and the Southern Railway was notified, but failed to answer by Saturday, when the Commission ordered it not to make the change till the case was heard. The Southern disobeyed the order Sunday night and Monday obtained a temporary injunction from the Federal Court, Judge Purnell, restraining the Commission from instituting suit of $500 a day penalty for disobeying the order and from enforcing the order as to not changing schedule as interefering with Interstate commerce. The case is set for hearing June 21st in the Federal Court and today the Southern petitioned the Commission to move the entire question to the Federal Court.

Returned the Articles.

Menjion was made a few days ago of the unexpected departure of a young draughtsman employed in a local architect's office. The young man was heard from yesterday in Columbus, Ohio. He returned a dress suit case taken from the room of a friend at the residence on Grace street where he boarded and gave assurance that a set of instruments he carried away with him would also be returned. The young man has also arranged to square up all other differences.

Cleared With Cotton Cargo.

The British steamer Manchester Merchant, Capt. Foale, cleared yesterday for Liverpool with cargo of 13,874 bales of cotton consigned by Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son. The value of the cargo is $800,700. The steamer Putney Bridge, which has just taken a berth at the Champion Compress, is expected to take one of the largest cargoes of cotton shipped from this port this season.

Seminole Seaman Delivered.

David Jones the colored ward room steward from the Revenue Cutter Seminole who was captured here after the ship had sailed for Southport Monday, was carried to Southport yesterday and put on board the cutter by Officer Leon George, who received $15 reward for making the arrest.

Young Man Has Retuned.

The young man Caddell, who disappeared from his home on North Fourth street, Sunday morning, returned to his home yesterday. No reason was given by the family to the police for the return of the young man.

MARINE HOSPITAL CLOSING

Nothing Heard as Yet From Washington—James Walker Memorial Hospital Will Not Try For Contract.

President Taylor, of the Chamber of Commerce, yesterday received no word from Washington with reference to the protest filed with Senator Simmons by telegraph the day before against the closing of the Marine Hospital in this city. However, Mr. Taylor expects a letter from Senator Simmons to-day. Mr. Simomns has been very busy in Congress the past two days as will be seen from the press reports and it is expected that he will make no report to the Chamber of Commerce here until he has something to report. Those who are interesting themselves in the movement to have the order of the Department revoked in regard to the Wilmington hospital entertain some hope that the effort will be successful.

At the meeting of the Board of Mangers of the James Walker Memorial Hospital Monday night, a proposition was submitted from the Marine Hospital authorities to have the local hospital accept the contract for caring for the patients of the Marine Hospital service at this port and it was unanimously decided to make no proposal to the government for the service, this being on the ground that the hospital is already overcrowded and there is not room for more than the usual number of city and county patients.

Aside from the fact that their civic pride per se opposes the abandoning of the Marine Hospital in this city, residents who recently purchased lots in St. James' Square are bitterly disappointed in the action of the Department relative to the institution in that it was generally understood that the government was about to beautify and establisb a park back of the hospital adjoining the "Square." The proposition for beautifying and improving this property of the government has now gone to the demnition bowwows unless it is decided to retain the hospital here.

ASSISTANT Y. M. C. A. SECRETARY

Mr. Herman Walker, of Trinity College, Here For Work.

The Y. M. C. A. accounts itself fortunate in having secured as assistant general secretary to Mr. Charles Dushan, Mr. Herman Walker, of Trinity College, who has already arrived and entered upon the work. Mr. Walker is a young man of engaging personality and has been given a warm welcome by members of the Association and the people of the city generally. Mr. Walker has been given the management of the Y. M. C. A. team in the City Baseball League and hopes to make a pennant winner of that company of fast players. He was himself at one time on the Trinity College team and knows the game from the beginning. His management will no doubt add strength to the team. Mr. Louis Orrell, former captain of the team, will leave soon for West Point. He has been succeeded by Mr. W. L. King.

MR. FOARD EDITOR-IN-CHIEF.

The Star has received the athletic number of the Trinity Chronicle, a publication of the students at Trinity College and of which a popular young Wilmingtonian, Mr. H. G. Foard, was the editor-in-chief during the past year. Mr. Foard is now at home to spend the Summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Foard, in this city.

The athletic number of the Chronicle is a credit to the college and the young men who so ably edited it. Besides the usual large amount of local news about the college and editorial observations, the paper contains half tone cuts of members of the Trinity baseball team and interesting data as to the record of the college in athletics during the past year, having won five hundred per cent. of the games played. The Trinity Chronicle is one of the most up-to-date college publications in the South and Mr. Foard is to be congratulated upon the success he and his able staff have made of it the past year.

STATE PHARMACISTS

Examining Board in Session All Day Yesterday at Wrightsville Beach

APPLICANTS NUMBER 48

One is a Lady and Six Are Negroes—Results Will Be Announced To-night or To-morrow Morning —Large Class.

The annual meeting of the North Carolina State Board of Pharmacy convened in the ball room of the Seashore Hotel, at Wrightsville Beach, yesterday morning for the purpose of examining applicants for license. President E. V. Zoeller, of Tarboro; Secretary and Treasurer F. W. Hancock, of Oxford, and all other members of the Board were present, viz: Messrs. C. D. Bradham, Newbern; W. W. Horne, Fayetteville, and C. B. Miller, Goldsboro.

The class for examination numbered 48 and with the exception of last year when there were 56, the class is the largest on record. Of the number yesterday one is a lady and six are negroes, the class coming from all parts of the State. The examination was set at 9 o'clock in the morning and several of the number of embryo pharmacists were not through with their papers until 8 o'clock last night. The examination was considered thorough but not unduly rigid. The names of the applicants will not be announced until the papers have been examined and graded by members of the Board and then only will the successful ones be given.

The list of subjects upon which examination was given included Pharmaceutical Chemistry, Pharmacy, Materia Medica, Toxicology, Posology, Identification of Drugs, Criticism and Reading of Prescriptions. Each member of the Board prepared the questions upon that particular branch of study with which he is most familiar and the grading will be much in the same way and will be sufficient to keep members of the Board pretty busy until some time to-night or to-morrow morning. The list of successful applicants will be announced as soon as the papers are completed.

With the number of applicants befor the Board, members of the Board and those who have arrived to attend the State Pharmaceutical Association meeting, convening at the Beach to-morrow, the Seashore Hotel is pretty well crowded but the visitors have had beastly weather for their stay but are making the most of the disagreeable conditions. A large number of additional guests are expected at the hotel to-day. Many of the members of the Association are accompanied by their families and friends so that the meeting is developing into one of the largest and most important held at any of the seaside resorts this season.

The visitors all speak in highest terms of the service at the hotels on the beach and many of them will continue their visits there after the Association adjourns.

The Market House Affray.

Two of the young men who engaged in the affray at the market house Monday afternoon were arraigned before Mayor Pro Tem. Martin O'Brien in the police court yesterday but Woodus Kellum, Esq., their counsel, stated to the court that he had just been employed in the case and desired some time to investigate the matter before trial. A continuance was granted, each of the young men, James Jordan and Henyard Bordeaux, having given bond in the sum of $50 each for their appearance. Hartsfield Crandall and "Country John" Williams, the other defendants will be given trial before Justice Furlong Thursday.

Miss Keathley's Success.

Friends in this city of Miss Lillie Keathley, who has an important position in the War Department at Washington, will be interested to know from a recent issue of the Washington Star that she has just completed very successfully her first year in the George Washington University, of that city, receiving high grade certificates in French and German. She was also elected treasurer of the Girls' League of the institution at the commencement which has just closed.

Raleigh and Southport Road.

Fayetteville Observer: "Civil Engineer Respass informed the reporter to-day that grading on the Raleigh and Southport Railroad is completed to a point a little over two miles from the road's terminus in this city, the force now working this slue of 'Myrtle Hill' truck farms. Mr. Respass hopes, barring bad weather and circumstances unforeseen, to finish the whole grading by Friday, June 22nd. Five miles of rails for track-laying are now being rolled by a large Northern firm."

COTTON SEED WORTH MILLIONS.

The meeting of the Cotton Seed Crushers' Association in Atlanta last week was an exceedingly interesting occasion, as it developed a great many valuable facts about a great Southern industry that has sprung up on what was once regarded as worthless material. There are some men hardly fifty years old who remember as boys that the cotton seed which came from the gin were dumped in a pile and penned up so the hogs couldn't get them, as it was believed that they were fatal to the swine. Farmers never hauled their seed away from the gins and they accummulated in tremendous piles that rotted for years and became a source of danger to health. The Charlotte Chronicle, in the following, gives us some of the facts which cropped out at the Atlanta meeting.

"Governor Terrell told the convention that he remembers (as well as thousands of others in the South) when cotton seed was burned to get rid of it, but last year there were 4,500,000 tons of cotton seed bought from the Southern planters and the sum of $75,000,000 was paid to them, thus adding practically 25 per cent. to the value in that way to the cotton crop. This has been brought about principally through the cotton seed oil industry. There are probabilities of still further developments in the use of cotton seed which will increase the value of that product. Prof. J. H. McConnell, of Texas, in speaking of cotton seed meal as human food, made a striking presentation of its value for such uses. He gave a good lesson in the shape of biscuits and cakes made from a combination of cotton seed meal and wheat flour. They were pronounced as delicate and tasty as any product of the flour barrel by the members of the convention who were given an opportunity to partake of the food. Another use of the seed is that for fertilizer in the shape of meal. The use of the raw seed to enrich the land was pronounced a waste when the meal can be used to much better financial advantage. Professor Connell said that within a short time he believed cotton seed crushers of the South would be able to announce an actual discovery of 4,500,000 tons of new product fit for human consumption. He stated that he had used cotton oil as a cooking fat in his home for six months, and that it was equal in all respects for cooking purposes to the best lard. By an invention of comparatively recent times cotton oil is freed from the old impurities which gave it a rank odor. So-called olive oil which reaches America from southern Europe carries a large percentage of cotton-seed oil. Cotton-seed meal is used in making corn and flour muffins, biscuits, pancakes, gingerbread, dark graham bread, together with cakes of all kind, and for various other similar uses.

"The United States Department of Agriculture says that cotton-seed oil is worth for food purposes for animals about double the value of timothy hay, and cotton-seed meal for the same purpose is worth 3 1-3 times as much as corn meal. About $30,000,000 worth of cotton-seed oil is exported, and that is only one-third of the product. Fifteen years ago 500,000 barrels of cotton-seed oil were made, which number was increased to over 3,000,000 barrels for the past season."

HACKETT TO OPPOSE BLACKBURN.

The Democratic convention of the Eighth North Carolina Congressional District met in Statesville yesterday and by acclamation nominated the Hon. R. N. Hackett, of Wilkesboro, as the party's candidate for the House of Representatives. Mr. Hackett's nomination was a foregone conclusion, as in the contest within the party for the nomination he had outdistance all his competitors. The other aspirants, having found out that Mr. Hackett was the choice of the people, withdrew and made his nomination a mere formality. In his nomination the Democracy has a strong man to go up against any nominee that the Republican party may put up.

The Eighth District is at present represented by Congressman E. Spencer Blackburn, the only Republican Representative sent to Washington from this State. Speaking of his nomination, the Salisbury Post, anticipating it, says:

"Mr. Hackett has already announced his purpose to invite Blackburn to a joint discussion, but it is not believed even by Blackburn's partisans that he will accept the challenge, since Hackett is one of the strongest stump speakerns in the State and vastly Blackburn's superior in a joint canvass."

It might be remarked, however, that it is quite probable that Blackburn will not be the Republican nominee. The Republican State organization is fighting him, and even if he is nominated, it is quite likely that his own party will defeat him at the polls. Mr. Hackett, therefore, stands every chance of election and North Carolina will send a solid delegation of ten Democrats to Congress.

Says the Raleigh Caucasian (Rep.):

"Is there no man, who lives in the Eighth Congressional District, who is a bona fide citizen of the district and who pays taxes in it, who is fit to be a candidate for Congress? Those who claim that it is necessary to go outside of the district to look for a candidate are guilty of a very grave slander against the district and are not honoring themselves."

Blackburn, "the only Republican Congressman," lives in Greensboro and claims Wilkesboro as his home. There is no longer any doubt that the Republican papers as well as the leaders are endeavoring to defeat Blackburn for the nomination in the district which he now represents.

The Congressional convention in the Eighth District is the first to be held by the Democrats in this campaign, and they have done well.

GRAFT A LOSING GAME.

In the investigation of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Philadelphia a few days ago, J. McLellan, an employe of the company testified in contradiction of the testimony of others that the officials encouraged the employes in the acceptance of graft from the coal companies. Mr. McLellan, while in the employe of the company when Mr. Frank Tomson was president, was offered a gift of stock by the representative of a coal company. He consulted President Tomson as to the propriety of accepting it and President Tomson advised him to refuse the stock, telling him that "his honor and character were worth more than stock secured in that manner. That was the best reason in the world and it is worth remembering by every man.

A few days ago the Detroit (Mich.) News printed an interview held recently in Windsor, Ontario, with Oscar A. Baker, who is a fugitive from justice in Indiana and for whose arrest Gov. Hanly has offered a large reward. The News says that an acquaintance of Baker's from Indiana had just visited him and that he was exceedingly depressed and despondent. The News quotes Baker as saying:

"It has been a long, tiresome chase for me. Yes, it is true that the people whom I represented in the legislature have me still on their pay rolls and furnishing me money with which to live. But waht of that? It is a losing game at best. My advice to any young man entering politics is to be on the level."

President Tomson's advice and that of Baker, who is hiding out in Canada, was long ago given us in the unheeded addage: "Honesty is the best policy."

CURRENT COMMENT.

—As Tom Dixon objects to the title of "Reverend," we rise to suggest that Governor Glenn might appropriate Tom's discarded title.—Raleigh Enterprise.

—The most remarkable movement in the political world of to-day is the great wave of Bryanism that is undoubtedly sweeping over the national Democratic party. The movement is all the more remarkable when it is remembered that it had its birth and is living its life with Bryan ten thousand miles away and apparently making no personal efforts to collect and reorganize his scattered following.—Greensboro Industrial News.

—Kansas has had hard luck with her senators. One committed suicide, one resigned years ago to escape expulsion, one was defeated for re-election by evidence that he was buying votes, and still another had his election investigated by a Senate Committee, which reported that bribery in his interest was proved, but it was not clear that he was a party to the bribery or that enough votes were bought to affect the result. And now there is Burton. For a state that boasts of more churches and schools per capita than any other State, and a smaller percentage of foreign-born than most other States have, Kansas has not established an enviable record in senatorial selections—Philadelphia Record.

—The different cities may be left to fight their own battles on this question, but it would be well for them to take notice that tides of immigration cannot be controlled by newspaper articles. Questions of that sort must be settled by actual conditions. Those who desire laborers must attract them by the ease of getting employment, and by the wages that are offered. When these are satisfactory steps must be taken to bring these facts to the knowledge of immigrants, or those contemplating a change of residence. Thos who offer the best terms and make them known most efficiently will get the most immigrants. Lines of steamships will adapt themselves to the demands for transportation.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

—Verily, a link in the chain which binds to the past has been cut off in the death of Colonel David Guy Maxwell, which occurred at his home in Charlotte this morning. He had the distinction of being the best posted man on the history of the people of Mecklenburg county. He knew the older people and he knew all of their descendants. In times gone by when this writer was the only local reporter in town, Colonel Maxwell was about the only man to get news from. He was always in a good humor and looked on the bright side of life. He had been a justice of the peace for many years and his administration of that office was one peculiarly his own. It was a hard case that he could not keep out of being sent further into the law. He was an arbiter of differences, and he was universally successful in restoring friendly feelings.—Charlotte Chronicle.

TWINKLINGS.

—Ethel—How did I look in my new ball dress last night? Clara—Oh! it was something stunning! Nobody recognized you at first.—Fliegende Blatter.

—"Jink says his wife is his right hand." "So?" "Yes. And I imagine he is very careful not to let his right hand know what his left hand is doing.—Lonisville Courier Journal.

—"He is having trouble with a railroad." How?" "That railroad wants to go through his farm." "Well?" "And he is trying to go through the railroad company."—Houston Post.

—She—I don't think any girl should marry until she reaches a certain age. He (eagerly) — Exactly! That i when she reaches an age where she's certain she loves a fellow as you love me—Philadelphia Press.

—Now They Don't Speak—Clara—Don't be surprised if William Sapleigh proposes to you to-night, Maude—Gracious! Do you think he will? Clara—Sure I do. When I refused him last night he said he didn't care what became to him. Chicago News.

—"D.d you notice the faux pas I made at the Gottawadd's last night?" asked Mrs. Aldcastle. "No," replied her hostess. "I seen you 'workin'' over the chafin' dish, but I thought you was makin' a Welsh rarebit."—Chicago Record-Herald.

—Reminders.—"I notice Bender's wife doesn't wear those red cherries on her hat any more." "No; she says, 'Deliver us from temptation.'" "What do you mean?" "Why, every time Bender sighted those cherries he sneaked out and got a cocktail."—Chicago News.

DR. MCCLURE AT CLINTON.

Two Excellent Sermons There Sunday—One To Graded School.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Clinton, N. C. June 11.—Yesterday was a memorable day here for two great sermons preached by Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., of Wilmington. At the morning hour Dr. McClure addressed the members of the graduating class of the Clinton Graded School, the students generally and a great audience of town and country people that packed the splendid court auditorium. His discourse was a magnificent and eloquent portrayal of Christian growth and character as the greatest thing in human experience.

At the evening service held in the Presbyterian church, Dr. McClure spoke to a tender theme—the matchless mediatorial love of Jesus. At times the audience was thrilled and moved to tears by the melting pathos of the eloquent preacher, who drew a faithful picture of the lowly Nazarine as the great debt payer for fallen humanity.

Two more timely and eloquent sermons have never been preached here, nor have Clinton people enjoyed a sweeter personality than Dr. McClure in whom that suaviter in modo is so finely blended with a pure Christian manhood as to make perfect combination. Surely here is a prophet who is honored both in his own city and wherever else he may go. Dr. McClure returned to his home in Wilmington to-day, followed by the unanimous admiration and love of our people.

—At Wilson late Saturday night fire in the second story of the Barnes-Graves Grocery Company did $3,000 damage. The fire started in some egg crates in an unknown way.

—About 1 o'clock Sunday morning fire was discovered in the millinery department of the dry goods store of E. Miller, at Tarboro. The loss is estimated at $5,000 or $6,000, fully covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown.

—The Democratic county convention of Harnett county has been called to meet at Lillington Tuesday, August 11, at 11 A. M., to nominate candidates for the Legislature and county offices. The Republican convention will meet at Lillington, Monday, July 2nd.

—The union meetings, which have been held morning and evening for the past two weeks at Wilson, closed Sunday night. The pastors of the Methodist, Baptist, Christian, Episcopal and Presbyterian churches preached for these services and the results of the meetings were highly satisfactory.

—Machinery for the ice factory is being installed at Duke, the new manufacturing town on the Cape Fear river, in Harnett county, and it will soon be ready for operation. The capacity of the plant will be sufficient to supply the demand not only of Duke but the surrounding country and neighboring towns.

—Bud Richardson, the negro who was shot Saturday night by Miss Pearl Jones, the long distance telephone operator at Selma, while he was endeavoring to gain an entrance to the central office, for the purpose, as he confessed on his death-bed of committing an assault, died at 9:40 o'clock Monday night. His accomplice is safe in jail.

—Washington correspondence Charlotte Observer: While referring to the former Populist Senator it might be noted, anent the Republican State convention, that Mr. Cortelyou did not accept the invitation when it was extended to him, as was announced with much flourish recently by those speaking for what Mr. Butler terms the "Butler faction."

—Newbern special, June 11: Actual work commenced today on the Washington and Newbern Railroad at a point on the Neuse river connecting with the Pamlico, Oriental & Western Railway. The survey is about completed. A large force of men, in charge of B. B. Collins, is at work on the road. This is one of the new roads which was mentioned when the merger was made. The length of the new road will be 35 miles.

—Mr. W. A. Lambeth, of Thomasville, left Saturday night for Boston, Mass., from which place he will sail next Monday on the steamship Bohemia for a trip abroad. He will be accompanied by Mr. Whitehead Kluttz, of Salisbury, and a party of young men from various universities. This European trip includes England, France, Italy, Germany and other places and will extend to the last of August.

—Charlotte Observer: The June civil term of the Mecklenburg Superior Court convened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, with Judge Henry R. Bryan presiding. As a starter five divorce cases were disposed of, the divorce being granted in each instance and little time being wasted upon them. These cases were as follows: M. A. Price vs. Sallie A. Price, R. W. Roberts vs. Annie Lee Roberts, J. C. Warren vs. Rilla Warren, J. C. Treadway vs. Jane Treadway and Sam Wallace vs. Lelia M. Wallace, the parties in the latter case being colored. It is a remarkable fact that the plaintiffs in each of the five cases are the husbands.

—Washington special to New York Sun: The administration has taken a deep interest in Republican party affairs in North Carolina. In the last gubernatorial election in that State the Republicans polled 80,000 votes and the Democrats 20,000 in excess of that number. The Republicans will make every effort in the coming Fall elections to cut down the Democratic majority with a view to capturing the electoral vote of the State two years hence. Secretary of War Taft will deliver an address at the Republican State convention, to be held in Greensboro on July 10. Postmaster General Cortelyou will also attend the convention if public business permits. Senator Carter, of Montana, has promised to speak to the North Carolina Republicans on the occasion of their State convention.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pitkin have instituted a suit against the Postal Telegraph and Cable Company for the recovery of damages in the sum of $1,900 on account of expense, inconvenience and mental anguish on account of a mistake in the transmission of a telegram. Mr. Pitkin, at Knoxville, Tenn., telegraphed his wife, at Little Rock, Ark., to meet him on a given date in Charlotte. It is alleged that in the telegram received by Mrs. Pitkin Chattanooga, Tenn., was substituted for Charlotte, and she went to Chattanooga and spent several weeks there before she could learn of her husband's whereabouts, Mr. Pitkin spending a like perplexed period in Charlotte.

—Greensboro Industrial News: Two children, playing in a branch in South Greensboro Sunday afternoon found buried in sand beneath the roots of a tree overhanging the water the body of a newly born infant. They immediately ran home in terror and told their parents of the gruesome find. The police were at once notified, and the patrol wagon, carrying a couple of officers was soon upon the scene. The body, when found, was entirely naked and no facts have yet been discovered that reveal the idenity of the parents. They only clue that throws any light upon the subject was the statement made by a man living in the neighborhood that a carriage having the apearance of a street hack, Saturday night stopped ner the spot where the body was found and waited for a few minutes before being driven away.

—The Carolina Savings & Trust Company is a new concern for High Point, promoted by the Armfields. A general savings and commercial bank business, also a real estate and insurance business, will be done throughout the State. It is the intention of the company to operate branches in every important community in North Carolina. A subscribed capital stock of $250,000 divided into shares of $100 each, will be the capital stock. Several thousand dollars have already been subscribed and the papers for the charter were forwarded to Raleigh on Monday. In the letter sent out by Mr. Armfield he says: "We feel the banking and insurance fields in North Carolina are practically undeveloped and we believe that a strong company, organized and conducted along liberal lines, will not only prove to be a very satisfactory investment to the stockholders, but will aid materially in the upbuilding of the Commonwealth."

CURE YOUR KIDNEYS

Do Not Endanger Life When a Wilmington Citizen Shows You the Cure.

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor, why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a certain cure is offered them?

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use, because it gives to the kidneys the help they need to perform their work.

If you have any, even one, of the symptons of kidney disease, cure yourself now, before diabetes, dropsy or Bright's disease sets in. Read this Wilmington testimony:

B. R. King, the well-known policeman, of Wilmington, residing at 706 Wooster streets, says: "I had terrible pain in my back which worked around to my side and in my stomach, so bad at times that it laid me up. I used internal medicines and they did not help me. I put on plasters and rubbed with liniment, and none of them helped me at all. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills recommended I got a box of them at Bellamy's drug stone. The next day after commencing to use them I noticed relief. Since using two boxes of them I have not had an ache or a pain in my back. It is with pleasure that I add my name to those endorsing the claims made for this remedy."

WHITE WOMEN IN AN AFFRAY.

Bloody Cutting At Kingsdale, in Robeson County, Monday Night.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C., June 12.—Kingsdale, five miles from this place on the Raleigh and Charleston railroad, was the scene of a bloody affray last night. The participants were two white women both of whom are married and have children. From the best information obtainable it seems that the children of one family have whooping cough and the mother had been requested to keep them away from the home of the other, but she took offence at the request and proceeded to give her neighbor a piece of her mind. She was ordered to leave which she did, but soon returned and made an attack with a knife, stabbing and slashing the other woman in a fearful manner. A physician was hastily summoned from here and gave the necessary attention. He says the woman is dangerously cut, but may pull through. At this writing no arrests have been made.

AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

Chauncey L. Southern and Clever Supporting Company Are Here.

Nothwithstanding the incessant rain and the fact that the company is handicapped by the illness of several members, including the leading lady, a very clever production was given at the Academy of Music last night by Mr. Roland A. Osborne's company, headed by the favorite young romantic actor, Mr. Chauncey L. Southern. Miss VanTaessel, the leading lady, has been ill with appendicitis for some time and as quite a singular coincidence Miss Bessie Mills, another leading member of the cast was stricken with the same disease upon her arrival in this city, and has been taken to the hospital here. However, Mr. Osborne has already telegraphed to New York for others to take the places of those who are temporarily out and they are expected to-night or to-morrow.

To-nigt the company presents one of the best bills in its repertory, Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, in which Mr. Southern will be seen in the leading role. Patrons of the Academy are assured of a finished production in this old and favorite bill and it will no doubt be greeted by a large house. Popular prices are prevailing. Seats are now on sale at Plummer's.

FIRE AT ROCKY MOUNT.

Family Had Narrow Escape From Residence Yesterday Morning.

Rocky Mount, N. C., June 12.—This morning about 2 o'clock the alarm of fire was turned in for the Third ward, which proved to be in the residence of Mr. P. B. Kyser. When the family awoke the fire had gained such headway that the staircase was burning. The inmates in the center and front of the building escaped by climbing on the roof of the front porch and down a tree, while those in the back part of the house had to slide down a sewer pipe. Miss Virginia Kyser attempted to run down the staircase, and one of the steps fell in, badly burning her ankle and foot. Absolutely nothing, save the piano, was saved.

The origin of the fire is supposed to have been from a defective flue in the kitchen. The total loss amounted to something above $6,000, partially covered by insurance. Mr. Kyser had his residence insured for $3,250 and furniture $1,000.

Rain Fell in Torrents.

The rain fell in torrents all day yesterday and from the appearance of the ground, farmers will not have cause to complain of another drought for weeks to come. It was a blinding, driving rain—cold and disagreeable, but everybody seemed to welcome it.

During the year all current expenses were paid and $400 indebtedness incurred during the previous year was liquidated.

DISORDERLY NEGRO WOMAN.

Combined Effort of Two Policemen to Arrest Kate Fisher.

Kate Fisher, a notoriously bad colored woman created a scene at Front and Princess streets last night shortly before 10 o'clock. The Fisher woman lives somewhere in the neighborhood and loomed into view of Officers C. G. Jones and J. R. Minshew about as drunk as whiskey and disagreeable weather could make her. She was cursing a blue streak when the officers spoke to her but when they placed her under arrest her previous language was not a circumstance and no amount of persuasion could induce her to close up. When the patrol wagon came, she fought the officers fiercely and it was only with difficulty that she could be subdued. A large crowd gathered and were interested spectators of the proceedings. Finally she was carted to the police station and will be given time at the farm by the Mayor. She has served often there before, and will doubtless accept any sentence that may be imposed with the utmost complacence.

RAILROAD RATE BILL STIRS UP HOUSE

has recommitted the bill to the conferees. The rule proposes to grant the request of the Senate for a further conference.

Mr. Williams, the minority leader, said that the House was pretty familiar with rules by this time. If they wanted to be gagged all they had to do was to vote for the rule. If they desired to express themselves on the great question involved in the rate bill they would vote no. He said the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. Dalzell) had promised the House that it would have a chance to vote on the amendment and now brings in a rule prohibiting an honest expression. Mr. Williams then read the amendment he proposed to the rule as reported by Mr. Dalzell from the Committee on Rules:

"Provided, however, that the House conferees are instructed to concur in the Senate amendment declaring sleeping car companies to be common carriers; and are further instructed to insist upon exempting from the provision forbidding free passes, officials and employes of the railroads and their immediate families."

Hr. Bartlett, of Georgia, opposed the adoption of the rule because he said the House should have the right to vote on the Senate amendments. He called attention to the statement made by Mr. Grosvenor, of Ohio, on May 25th when the bill was, by a rule, first sent to conference and quoted him as saying:

"I ask the House to hear what I say and measure my language when that conference report comes back there will be a chance to vote on every amendment the House desires to vote upon and then he will debate, and for once in my life I think I occupy a position where I can enforce the suggestion I have made."

Paraphrasing what was said by Joshua, Mr. Prince, of Illinois, received a round of applause when he stated his position:

"Choose ye this day whom you will serve; the sleeping car companies or the people; as for me and my house, we will serve the people."

Mr. Richardson, of Alabama, was pronounced against the rule believing that now was the time for the House to set the seal of its approval on some of the amendments of the Senate, particularly on the question of sleeping cars.

Mr. Townsend, of Michigan, was in favor of the rule on the ground that it was the orderly procedure to determine what the House desires. He said that cleeping cars had not been originally considered in question with rate regulation at the time the bill was first considered in committee, but as the dangerous doctrine of specification had been adopted he believed that sleeping cars should be included in the bill. Speaking of the bill itself Mr. Townsend said it was a much better bill than the most ardent friends of the measure had hoped for when the agitation began.

Mr. Grosvenor said that the position of the House was the same as when the conference asked for by the Senate had been agreed to; that the House had no conference report properly before it and that he stood in the same position on the right to discuss the amendments as he did no May 22d.

Mr. DeArmond, of Missouri, called the rule "gag law,," and said now was the time to vote on the amendments as to sleeping car companies and passes for railroad employes.

The rule was adopted, yeas 184, nays 99, and Messrs. Hepburn, of Iowa; Sherman, of New York, and Richardson, of Alabama, were appointed conferees.

While the Sundry Civil bill was under consideration the House in committee of the whole adopted an amendment offered by Mr. Bowerstock, of Kansas, prohibiting canteens in soldiers homes.

Unexpectedly the Neill-Reynolds report on the conditions of Chicago packing houses came in for severe criticism, Mr. Mondell, of Wyoming; Mr. Slayden, of Texas, and Mr. Faulkerson, of Misouri, discussing the advisability of the report in scathing terms. Mr. Adams of Massachuetts, defended both the President and the report and insisted that the packers should pay the cost of inspection.

The Speaker appointed Representative Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, as regent of the Smithsonian Institution.

The House adopted the conference report on the Indian Appropriation.

Heine's Sense of Humor.

Heine's sense of humor did not leave him until the last. A few days before his death Hector Berlioz called on him just as a tiresome German professor was leaving after worrying him with his uninteresting conversation. "I am afraid you will find me very stupid, my dear fellow," he said. "The fact is I have just been exchanging thoughts with Dr. ——."

On one occasion when the doctor was examining his chest he asked him, "Can you whistle?" He replied, "Alas, no; not even the pieces of M. Scribe."

Made a Lock For the Key.

An old and curious key and lock are attached to the door of Temple church in Fleet street, London. The key weighs seven pounds, is eighteen inches long, and, unlike other keys, it was not made for the lock. On the contrary, the lock was made for it. Both key and lock have been in use since the crusades, the church itself having been built by the Knights Templars in 1185. —London Tit-Bits.

LABOR'S RIGHTS TO LEGISLATE

swered in better tones in the future we shall change the request into a demand. And unless the demand is granted we shall appeal to the sympathy and the conscience of our fellow citizens. We have been told that we have no right to threaten a public servant to defeat him at the polls. My answer to this is that men of great wealth, of power and of position, representing great financial and capitalistic institutions, are not averse to treatening Congressmen, but have even threatened the President of the United States. It is claimed that they have the right to do so. But what is right for them cannot be perverted into being wrong when done by us. Our threatening is to do a lawful thing, and I contend that a thing we have a right to do we have a right to threaten to do."

TEACHING THE HORSE.

Will Learn Anything His Muscles Can Perform.

Expert horsemen believe that a horse can be taught to do anything that it is possible for an animal so formed and to be utterly fearless. Thus we know of horses rushing into battle with a fearlessness that is magnificent, although in the beginning of their lives they may have been foolishly timid, shying at everything unusual that happened to be seen in their travels.

In order to teach a horse fearlessness he must be accustomed to all sorts of sights and sounds. He must come to know that because something that he sees or hears is unusual it does not follow that it is harmful, for it is the unusual things that frighten him. The horse is an animal of one idea at a time and is not able to discriminate, so say the men who have made a study of the horse. While he will travel along quietly close by the roar of a train, he may tremble at the flutter of a piece of loose paper flying in the wind. It is not the frightfulness of the object that seems to alarm him, but the unfamiliarity of it. Horse trainers say that the mistakes made in "breaking" and training a colt is that it is too often done in the seclusion of some country road instead of amid the sights and sounds that the animal must necessarily become familiar with later.

As soon as the horse becomes familiar with anything and has learned to believe that it will not hurt him he will stand quietly or trot along peacefully, even though all sorts of noises and queer sights are about him. Thus the artillery horse will stand amid the roar of cannons, being used to the noise and not knowing that the sound predicts anguish and death. It is well to accustom a horse to unusual sounds as soon as possible after he is trained for riding or driving. It renders him safe and docile, even though he be a spirited animal. A certain trainer of horses said that an ideal school for horses would contain thrashing machines, pile drivers, steam drills, electric, steam and elevated cars, a band of martial music and a gang of quarrymen blasting rock. A horse that was drilled among such a bedlam as this would indeed prove immune to strange noises. The gentle family horse, petted by man and child, is not always trained to all this, yet he often makes a useful and faithful animal, loved by his owner and evidently making some return of affection.—Detroit Tribune.

A Poor Recipe.

"Don't talk to me about the recipes in that magazine," said Mrs. Lane, with great energy. "Wasn't that the very magazine that advised me to put on that sody solution and leave the tablecloth out overnight to take off those yellow stains?"

"I'm inclined to think it may have been," said Mrs. Lane's sister, with due meekness. "I sent you a number of them in the spring, I remember."

"Well, and what happened?" asked Mrs. Lane, with rising wrath.

"Didn't the stains disappear?" asked her sister.

"Disappear!" said Mrs. Lane in a withering tone. "It was the tablecloth that disappeared. I don't know anything about the stains."

Speaker Cannon has expressed himself emphatically against the prohibition of passes to railroad employes.

"I would not go home and run for Congress again if I had to defend that provisions," he has said many times since the provision was made a part of the conference report.

The Speaker has in his district a constituency of at least 5,000 railway employes.

OFTEN MISTAKEN IN APPENDICITIS

Dr. Dieulafoy, of Paris, Declares That Surgical Operations Are Frequently Performed on Wrong Diagnosis.

Paris, June 11.—A sensational statement was made recently before the Academy of Medicine by Professor Dieulafoy, who said that many persons merely suffering from muco-membranous or sabulous typhlocolitis are wrongly operated upon for appendicitis That affection is characterized by periods of constipation and diarrhoea, the ejections having certain characteristic features. There is pain in the right iliac fossa, which resembles that caused by appendicitis.

Dr. Dieulafoy pointed out that it was very rare for a person to suffer from appendicitis and typhocolitis at the same time, and in any case appendicitis is neither a consequence nor a result of typhocolitis. He expressed the opinion that the number of errors of diagnosis and unnecessary operations performed were ever on the increase.

It has been demonstrated, he said, that muco-membranous typhlocolitis had nothing to do with the appendix, the ablation of which, consequently, had no curative effect whatever. It was necessary, therefore, that great care be taken in making the diagnosis, as it was time to put an end to useless sugical operations.

Dr. Dieulafoy said he was as much as ever in favor of the ablation of the appendix in cases of real appendicitis.

Dr. Doyen fully supports the views of Dr. Dieulafoy, and says:—"I could cite many cases where an operation was decided upon merely because the diagnosis was insufficient. There has been a tendency blindly to decide upon surgical intervention, and operations have even been carried out on patients in the early stages of typhoid fever.

"Quite recently a child was brought to me. I was asked to proceed to an operation for apendicitis. Instead of operating I examined the child and found the symptoms described to be simply due to the presence of worms in the intestines. Nevertheless the parents were so convinced that it was a case of appendicitis that an operation was performed by another surgeon the next day."

MARRIED AT WARSAW, N. C.

Popular Florence Young Man Claims Fair Duplin Bride.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Warsaw, N. C. June 6.—One of the most beautiful and impressive marriages ever witnessed was solemnized here this evening at 6:30 o'clock at the First Methodist church. The contracting parties were Mr. Edward R. Hines, of Florence, S. C., and Miss Bessie Fonvielle, of Warsaw, Dr. F. D Swindell officiating.

The color scheme was pink and white. The church was decorated with evergreens while just above the altar hung a beautiful bell made of evergreens and white roses on both sides of which were long festoons of evergreens.

As the bridal party reached the vestibule, Mrs. J. S. Battle, of Conway, S. C., sang "O! Promise Me," following which could be heard the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march rendered so beautifully by Mrs. J. D. Mallard, of Warsaw.

The first couple entering, Mr. Earl Best, of Warsaw, and Miss Dell Rives, of Florence, dividing at the door. Mr. Best came down the right aisle and Miss Rives down the left. Following then came Mr. J. S. Battle, of Conway, S. C., and Miss Sallie Fonvielle, of Warsaw, the lady going down the right and the gentleman down the left aisle. Then came Mr. J. E. Fonvielle, of Richmond, Va., with Miss Maukie Noble, of Warsaw, followed by Mr. Oscar Elliott, of Florence, S. C., with Miss Stella Williams, of Warsaw. After them came the maid of honor and flower girl, Misses Annie and Helen Fonvielle, sisters of the bride. These preceded the bride who came in leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. E. N. Fonvielle, going down the left aisle, while the groom and best man, Mr. Ernest F. Hines, of Florence, went down the right. As they reached the altar they were met by Dr. Swindell, who after the bride was given away, proceded with that beautiful old ring service which for beauty and impressivenses is not excelled. After the ceremony the party left church in reverse order, except the flower girl who made a carpet of flowers ahead of the party while Mendelssohn's march was being played. The bride wore white crepe de chine over white taffeta, tulle veil fastened with lillies of the valley, carrying bride's roses. The maid of honor wore a pink silk mulle Princess gown, carring pink and white carnations tied with chiffon ribbon. The brideesmaids were dressed in white organdies with pink girdles, carying handsome bouquets of white carnations and maiden hair ferns. The groom and attendants were in full dress.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party was charmingly entertained at the home of the bride's father, Mr. J. H. Fonveille. The bride and groom left 'mid showers of rice' on the northbound train for Northern cities.

COBALT FOUND BY MR. EDISON

Mineral for Which Great Inventor Sought Exists in Four Counties in North Carolina.

(Charlotte Observer.)

Ashville, June 10.—Thomas A. Edison, the wizard of the electrical world has ended his automobile trip through western North Carolina in search of cobalt and has gone to Nashville, Tenn. Mr. Edison arrived in Asheville Saturday afternoon, remaining at the Glen Rock Hotel until late in the night, when he left on No. 35 for Tennessee. Mr. Edison ended his trip through western North Carolina at Webster, Jackson county, Thursday afternoon. Saturday morning the great electrical expert and his companions went to Sylva and from that place to Asheville by train. The automobiles were left at Sylva. They will be snipped to Nashville and Mr. Edison expects to continue his search for the valuable mineral.

He said while here that his trip through North Carolina had been most successful and that he is satisfied cobalt is to be found in such large quantities as to enable him to reduce the cost of the city traffic 55 percent. and cut the weight of storage batteries just half in two.

Mr. Edison found cobalt in Gaston, Lincoln, Jackson and Cleveland counties. He said that in Jackson county there is a large quantity of it and that, from assays of the mineral found in both Jackson and other counties, the quality was just what he expected. During his investigation Mr. Edison was accompanied by two experts on mineral and when a trace of cobalt was found Mr. Edison would stop and an essay of the mineral would be made.

Mr. Edison stated Saturday night that he had left forces of men in the four counties in North Carolina and that a thorough investigation of the cobalt beds would be made. "These men will report to me," said he, "and I may return to North Carolina during the Summer to further investigate my discoveries." he said that he is confident the discoveries already made would enable him to at once start on the work of new vehicles propelled by cobalt batteries. Mr. Edison said that he believed the discovery of cobalt in the South would mean additional prosperity for this section of the country. Cobalt has already been found in Kentucky, Tennessee, Georgia and Alabama and Mr. Edison now has forces of men in those States prospecting and examining the mineral deposits already found. He says that there is a streak of cobalt running from a point near Nashville into this State and that some of the richest beds were found in North Carolina.

THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, June 12.—The cotton market was quiet and irregular during to-day's session with the close 5 points higher on near to 4 points lower on more distant months. Sales for the day were estimated at about 150,000 bales.

The opening was firm at an advance of 4@9 points with the old crop months leading the advance on a renewal of covering by shorts which were influenced by firmer Liverpool cables. Almost at once after the opening, however, July in New Orleans broke about 10 points and the list here eased off under realizing. July continued relatively firm on the decline so far as the local market was concerned and held an advance of about 2 points while later positions sold 1 to 3 points net lower. A rally of a few points followed the publication of the weekly weather report at midday, but the market eased off again toward the close on rumors of showers in Texas and reports of a less active spot demand being depressing factors as well as the absence of fresh buying for long account and the tendency among smaller longs to take profits.

Spot cotton closed quiet and steady; middling upland, 11.25; middling gulf, 11.50; sales, 1,515 bales.

New York, June 12.—Receipts cotton at the ports to-day 5,441 bales against 12,396 last week and 16,00- last year. For the week, 40,000 bales against 55,170 last week and 80,376 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans, 948 bales aaginst 4,115 last year and at Houston, 1,022 bales against 4,645 last year.

NEWS NOTES FROM DUNN.

Law Partnership Formed—Revival Meeting, Crops and Candidates.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Dunn, N. C., June 11.—Mr. N. A. Townsend has arrived from the University, and has selected this place as a location to practice law. He and Hon. H. L. Godwin have formed a law partnership under the style of Godwin & Townsend. Mr. Townsend comes here with the highest recommendations. He is a native of Robeson county, and graduated from the University in 1905.

A great revival is being carried on here at the Baptist church. It began over a week ago and already there are a great many converts and additions to the church. It is being conducted by Evangelist Fred N. Day, of Winston-Salem, and Dr. Cullom, of Wake Forest. It is said to be the most successful revival held here for several years.

Crops are in fine condition and the farmers are highly pleased with the present outlook.

W. A. Stewart, chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of Harnett county, said today that the political condition of the county is everything that could be expeced. There are about sixteen candidates for Sheriff and candidates for the other offices in proportion. It cannot be said this year that Dunn is claiming all the county officers because Lillington is now offering two candidates for every office in the county.

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Is Rivaled by Human Hair Where Dandruff is Eradicated.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

MEAT INSPECTION TO SUIT DEMANDS

House Committee on Agriculture Making Changes in Beveridge Amendment

WILL REPORT ON THURSDAY

Measure Will Provide for Inspection to Suit Most Radical—No Date Required on Labels—Small Butchers Exempted.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Washington, June 12.—The House Committee on Agriculture continued its consideration of the Beveridge meat inspection amendment until after 6 o'clock this evening, but did not complete its tentative consideration of all of the features of the amendment. The question of fees has not been reached.

The only statement made by the committee, was that the country could be assured that the result of the deliberations would be a meat inspection law which would suit the most radical demands in that respect. Final conclusions on the matter so far as the committee is concerned will be reached to-morrow and the amendment will be reported to the House as a part of the agricultural bill Thursday. At this time the course to be taken will be a motion to disagree to all of the amendments of the Senate on this bill and ask a conference of the Senate.

The Beveridge amendment has been modified by the committee tentatively in a number of respects. One of these is to restrict its operation to "continental United States. "As originally drawn the amendment was applicable to all of the possessions of the United States. The restriction, according to the committee is calculated to avoid unnecessary expense and administrative red tape in complying with the requirement for an inspection in the Philippines and other possessions where practically no demand for inspection exists.

The date on the labels of canned meat products is not to be required. Neither is an inspection of the production of the small buthcher who may incidentally by reason of his location near a State line, do an interstate commerce business in serving his customers on both sides of the line.

The amendments so far made have been voted on by a non-partican vote in each instance. Members of the committee say that in no case have party lines been drawn in the consideration of the subject.

The Senate to-day passed the bill extending from 28 to 36 hours the time that livestock may be kept in cars without unloading.

The passage of the bill was advocated by Senator Warren who said that under the terms of the bill the time can only be extended on the written application of the owners of the stock in transit and the often unloading and loading is more harmful to stock than to extend for a few hours the time of the confinement.

STATEHOOD BILL IN SENATE.

Conference Report Withdrawn By One Vote—Livestock in Transit.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, June 12.—The conference report on the Statehood bill was to-day withdrawn from and again presented to the Senate, the new report containing the compromise provision agreed upon by the conferees of the two Houses. There was discusion on the power of the conferees to withdraw the report and the withdrawal was only permitted by a vote. The new report was not considered.

Much of the remainder of the day was devoted to the bill extending to 36 hours the time that livestock may be carried in transit without unloading. Senator Warren was in charge of the measure and he and a number of Senators debated it at length. During the discusion there was some reference to the proposed legislation for the regulation of packing houses and Senator Lodge said the packers are standing in their own light in not inviting the most rigid inspection. The bill was passed.

The bill incorporating the Lake Erie and Ohio river sip canal was also discussed at some length, but its further consideration was postponed until tomorrow. A number of minor bills were passed. The Senate adjourned at 6:10 P. M.

RAILROAD RATE BILL STIRS UP THE HOUSE

Democrats Beaten in Effort to Insist That Sleeping Car Companies Be Defined in Bill as Common Carriers—Free Passes.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Washington, June 11.—With a very large proportion of the members present, due to the activity of the Republican and Democratic whips, the House to-day, passed a rule sending the railroad rate bill back to the conference as asked for by the Senate without even an expression of its wishes as to any of the amendments to the bill. The rule was debated for forty minutes. The leaders participated in the discussion, the Democrats taking the position that the time was opportune to concur in the sleeping car amendment and instruct the conferences as to the anti-pass amendment. Although the Democrats were aided by eight Republicans they could not command votes enough to defeat the rule, which was adopted 184 to 99.

When the House met Mr. Dalzell presented a rule from the committee on rules taking the railroad bill from the speaker's table and sending it to conference as requested by the Senate.

Mr. Williams, of Mississippi, the minority leader, desired to offer an amendment, but with a shake of his head, Mr. Dalzell refused permission.

Mr. Dalzell then moved the previous question, whereupon Mr. Williams demanded the yeas and nays and the roll was called. By a vote of 186 to 92 the previous question was ordered.

Mr. Dalzell explained the parliamentary status of the rate bill, stating that the Senate had amended the bill and that on the request of the House a conference between the two houses had been agreed to. Now the Senate

CRUISER MARBLEHEAD HAS EMPIRE CORNERED

She Delivered Men and Arms to Revolutionists in Guatemala—Is Now in Nicaraguan Port and Will Be Seized.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, June 12.—The United States cruiser Marblehead has the American steamer Empire cornered in the harbor at Corinto, Nicaragua, and the moment the little American vessel attempts to leave the Nicaraguan coast it is believed the warship will seize it and bring it to account for the part played in assisting Guatemalan revolutionists.

Both the state and navy departments have been advised of the presence of the warship and the steamer in the Nicaraguan port and the cabinet considered the case to-day and is believed to have decided on punishing the American ship for its activity in the Central American revolution.

The Empire sailed from San Francisco for Central America several weeks ago and is said to have carried more than 100 men and a number o field guns and much ammunition to the Guatemalan revolutionists at San Jose. After unloading its cargo at San Jose the steamer sailed back to Corinto where it had coaled previous to going to Guatemala.

It is charged that the empire acted for a short time as a sort of navy for the Guatemalan revolutionists who are attempting to overthrow President Cabrera, and terrorized the little republic which had hitherto always confined its warfare to the land.

Nicaragua is believed to have violated neutrality by allowing the Empire to coal at Corinto, and start for San Jose when it is alleged that no attempt was made to conceal the purpose of the Empire nor the nature of its cargo.

BERWIND COAL CO. HIGHLY FAVORED

Pennsylvania Railroad Discriminated in Its Behalf in Hauling Coal

WAS DONE BY SUBTERFUGE

Paid Coal Company $17,000 Month by Being Allowed Seven Cents Ton for Use of Cars on Its Wharf.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Philadelphia, June 12.—The Berwind-White Coal Mining Company was the issue before the Interstate Commerce Commission when it resumed las investigation to-day into the relations of railroads to coal and oil interests. Probably the most important fact brought out was that the coal company is allowed seven cents a ton by the railroad companies for handling its cars on the Harsimus Pier. This allowance gives the coal company about $17,000 a month for this service. The work is performed, however, by Pennsylvania crews, with railroad locomotives for which the coal company makes monthly statements with the railroad, the amount of the monthly bill being something over $700.

Charles Heebner, counsel for the Berwind-White Company, aroused the ire of the commissioners when he told them coal loaded into bunkers of steamships was paid for by estimated weight and that there was no way of determining the puantity of coal that remained in a barge when the steamship did not take the entire load. Commissioner Cockrell suggested that counsel was evasive at which Mr. Heebner indignantly denied. "We have nothing to evade," he declared, "but I don't know how you are going to find out what you are trying to learn, because we have no way of knowing it ourselves."

"Well, we will stagger along the best we can, was Commissioner Clements' comment.

It developed through the testimony of Frederick MacOwen, treasurer of the company, that during a period when cars were scarce, E. J. Berwind made arrangements with the Pennsylvania Railroad by which his company secured 1,000 individual cars, several hundred of which had been in service of the railroad. Mr. MacOwen detiled, the history of the Berwind-White Company and explained the lease of Harsimus pier.

R. L. Franklin, assistant freight agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad was one of the witnesses to-day. Through him it was shown that out of seven claims for coal lost in transport, four made by Weston, Dodson & Co., were not granted, and three made by the Keystone Coal and Coke Company were alowed. The Keystone Company claims were allowed for delay en route, Mr. Franklin said, but while there might have been delay in the case of the other claims it was likely that they occurred at destination for which the consignee was probably responsible.

The president of the big coal carrying railroads will be given an opportunity to appear before the Commission and make any statement they may desire. Commissioner Cockrell said to-day the invitations would be extended to the president of the Pennsylvania, Baltimore and Ohio, the Norfolk and Western, the Chesapeake and Ohio; the New York Central railroad to appear before the commission. No suppoenaes would be issue for the heads of these roads and their appearance will be entirely optional with the officials.

"You cannot condemn a man without a hearing," said Commissioner Cockrell.

"It has been the purpose of the commission to permit the president of the roal roads to make any statement they may desire, but we are not yet ready. We want all the testimony we can get from the subordinates, and then the case in its entirety will be before the commission and the railroad presidents."

Engineer Chalkley was pinioned in his cab by the lumber. The passengers were transferred to a train which went on from Richmond. The track wes cleared by 7:40 P. M.

HORRIBLE CRIME IN MARYLAND

Two Ladies Assaulted Sunday Night While Returning from Church

DEED COMMITTED BY NEGRO

Whole Peninsula Aroused and Bent on Lynching Fiend—Captured at Cape Charles, Va.—Troops Called to Protect Him.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Philadelphia, June 12.—A special dispatch from Cape Charles, Va., to The Record tonight says that William Lee, a negro, who was arrested at Cape Charles yesterday on suspicion of having assaulted two women near Kingston, Md., Sunday night, is in the county jail at Eastville, Va., under the protection of a strong detachment of the 71st Virginia regiment. At a late hour the town of Eastville was quiet and no trouble was expected during the night.

The crime for which Lee is held was committed on Mrs. Robert Barnes and Miss Frances Powell, her cousin, as they were returning from church. Their assailant escaped in direction of Cape Charles and a general alarm was sent out for his capture. Yesterday morning the Cape Charles authorities picked up Lee on suspicion and notified the Maryland authorities. In the meantime the news of the crime had spread throughout the lower peninsular and threats were made that if the man was captured he would be prompt ly lynched. When the news of Lee's capture reached Somerset county, in which Kingston is located a party of 25 was organized and left for Cape Charles with the avowed purpose of lynching Lee if he was identified as the assailant.

The Cape Charles authorities were warned of the move and late last night Lee, under heavy escort, was taken to the Northampton county jail at Eastville. Early today the Maryland mob arrived and it became so threatening that Comonwealth Attorney F. Tucker Wilkins and Sheriff Jaridis called on Governor Swanson, of Virginia, for troops. The Governor promptly sent 150 men of the 71st regiment from Norfolk and they arrived at Cape Charles at 6 P. M. in a special boat. A special train was awaiting the troops and at 7:30 they arrived at Eastville and immediately surrounded the jail.

The two women, accompanied by Attorney H. J. Waters, of Somerset county, Maryland, went to Eastville during the day for the purpose of idenfying Lee, but up to a late hour tonight the authorities would not permit the women to see the negro. The Northampton authorities fear that if the women should identify Lee the mob, which has gathered here from all sections of the peninsular, might rush through te troops and attempt to gain an entrance to the jail.

MODIFIED FORM OF RATE BILL

Railroad Employes To Be Exempted from Anti-Free Pass Amendment

SPEAKER CANNON FAVORS IT

Thinks Railroad Men Would Turn Him Down If He Cut Off Teir Passes —Pullman Cars to Be Regulated.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Wasington, June 12.—There has been prepared by the House conferees on the railroad rate bill a modified form of the anti-pass amendment which will be presented at the next meeting of the joint conference committee for consideration. The modification is in the way of specifying an excepted class who may receive free transportation from the railroads lawfully. The first exception is that of railroad employes and their families. Another is that of employes of the Postoffice Department who hold commissions from the Postmaster General and are required to travel.

The agitation over the completely prohibitive pass provision embodied in the first conference report has developed a decided sentiment among legislators that anti-pass legislation perhaps ought not to be made a part of the railroad rate bill. There is a hint that such a proposition may be forthcoming from the Senate conferees as a counter proposition to the new provision to be presented by the House. Should such a plan be presented the prediction is made that both the Senate and House would agree and leave the matter under the present law.

Three is a further prediction regarding the result of the second conference on the bill that Pullman cars will be included in the regulation of the Inter-State Commerce Commission just as are other facilities of inter-

LABOR'S RIGHT TO LEGISLATION

LAWS FOR LABOR'S BENEFIT

Claims Right to Request Congress, Then to Demand, and Finally to Carry Their Cause to the Polls if Necessary.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, June 12.—The tenth annual convention of the International Brotherhood of Bookbinders, convened here today, and will continue its sessions throughout the week. The opening exercises were devoted to addresses and orchestral music by members of Musicians' Union No. 161, American Federation of Musicians.

Chairman William C. Connor, called the convention to order, and delivered a spirited address, in which he expressed the belief that the success of the industrial classes lay in organization on conservative lines.

Charles N. Neill, commissioner of labor, congratulated the delegates on their splendid organization, which he said represented one of the finest examples of success in the trade union movement. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, walked on the stage amid great enthusiasm. In his address he reminded the convention of the right of organized labor to request Congress to pass laws which will benefit them and said that the request had gone forth but that if it was not answered in better tones the request would be changed into a demand. He said in part:

"In the recent past the representatives of labor have been told they have no right to request from Congress the enactment of laws for the benefit of the toiling millions. Unless such petitions from organized labor are an-

LONDON ROYALTY GREETED THEM

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth Shown Distinguished Consideration Abroad

A DINNER AND RECEPTION

Entertainment Given By Ambassador and Mrs. Reid at Which Royalty Were Present and Decidedly Cordial—Decorations.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

London, June 12.—Seldom has the entertainment of representatives of any foreign government attracted the attention of the social, diplomatic and political world than did the dinner and reception given by Ambassador and Mrs. Reid at Dorchester house this evening for Representative and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth and at which King Edward, by his presence and attention to President Roosevelt's daughter, marked his esteem for the United States and the chief magistrate. Park Lane, in the vicinity of Dorchester house drew immense crowds as the carriages of distinguished guests passed through the fashionable thoroughfare to the residence which, since Mr. Reid took it a year ago, has welcomed the most famous Englishmen and visiting Americans and foreigners. In many respects, however, the gathering this evening was distinctive for besides King Edward, who was attended by Lord Granard, Lord-in-waiting, and Captain Helford Equerry and Mr. and Mrs. Longworth, the company included cabinet ministers, political leaders of both parties, diplomats and persons of prominence in English society.

Over the main entrance of the house which overlooks the Stanhope gate entrance of Hyde Park from Park Lane, a marble eagle looked down upon the arriving guests, who on entering passed between banks of flowers to the head of the stairway, where they were received by Mr. and Mrs. Reid and presented in turn to King Edward and Mr. and Mrs. Longworth.

Dinner was served in the main dining hall, which contains many valued paintings, for which Dorchester house is famous, and which no scheme of embellishment could improve.

Brute Safe in Jail.

Richmond, Va., June 12.—The Norfolk and Portsmouth military, a hundred and fifty strong, ordered out by Governor Swanson for the protection of the negro prisoner at Eastville, Northampton county, threatened with lynching by a mob from Maryland for the assault upon Mrs. Barnes and Miss Powell, of Somerset county, Maryland, arrived at Eastville about 7 P. M., and all is now quiet at the town in question. The negro's victims, who were taken to Eastville for the purpose of identifying their assailant, were not allowed by the authorities to see the prisoner, and took the train at 6:50 for the return to their homes. There is now no expectation of trouble to-night.

The military left Eastville to-night with the prisoner for Norfolk, where the man will be safe until arrangements can be made for his deportation to Maryland.

LYNCHING BEE IN MARYLAND

Negro Who Murderously Assaulted His Employer Victim of Mob Violence.

OFFICERS WERE OUTWITTED

Were Spiriting Him Away When Enraged Citizens Appeared and Shot Him to Death—Feeling Accentuated by Criminal Assaults.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Pocomoke City, Md., June 12.—Ned Watson, colored, was tonight taken from the authorities by a mob and shot to death here. This afternoon he had murderously assaulted his employer Samuel J. Barnes, near Kings Creek, Somerset county, fracturing his skull and leaving him for dead. Barnes was removed to the Penisula Hospital at Salisbury, where his death is expected momentarily. Watson was caught near the railroad station here about 8 P. M. and, though a mob bent on lynching him gathered very quickly, he was hustled to jail by officers. The mob continued to grow, however, and was in an especially ugly mood because of a criminal assault upon two white women by a negro in this county. About 10:30 tonight the officers tried to smuggle Watson to a train intending to take him to Princess Ann for safety. They were detected in the attempt by the mob, however, and their prisoner was shot to death.

Frankfort, Ky., June 12.—The Kentucky court of appeals to-day upheld the constitutionality of the State law of 1904 prohibiting co-education of the races in the schools of the commonwealth. The court says the new law does not violate the bill of rights of the fourteenth amendment of the Federal constitution. The case will go on appeal to the United States Supreme Court.
